Gospel Reflection

The readings for the 5th Sunday of Easter tell us that we are called to follow Jesus and serve him, even though we don't always know where that might lead us.

In the gospel Jesus offers comfort, guidance, and encouragement as he tells us to have faith in him. This gospel passage is part of Jesus' farewell discourse to his disciples before his crucifixion, and it contains some of the most beautiful and profound words that Jesus ever spoke.

"Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me." No matter what challenges we may face in life, we can always find peace and comfort in our faith. We are called to trust in God and in Jesus, and to hold fast to that trust no matter what happens.

"In my Father's house there are many dwelling places." Our ultimate home is with God in heaven. We are called to strive for this heavenly home, to live our lives in a way that will allow us to be with God forever.

"I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me." Jesus is the path that we must follow if we want to be close to God. He is the truth that we must seek, and the life that we must live if we want to experience the fullness of God's love.

"Whoever believes in me will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these." We are called to continue Jesus' work in the world. We are called to love others, to serve others, and to bring God's light into the darkness of the world.

Jesus describes himself as "the way, the truth, and the life." His life and teachings demonstrate how we can live in harmony with God and one another. By following Jesus' example, we too can live in harmony with God and one another, and strive to make the world a better place for all.

- How can we maintain our trust in Jesus during difficult times?
- What can we do to keep our focus on our ultimate home with God in heaven?
- How can we better follow the path that Jesus has laid out for us in our daily lives? What are some practical ways we can continue Jesus' work in the world?
