SCRIPTURE READINGS:

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 89

Second Reading: Romans 6:3-4, 8-11

Gospel: Matthew 10:37-42

Gospel Reflection

The readings for the 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time present us with a profound reflection on the themes of service, prophets, and hospitality. In the first reading from 2 Kings, we encounter a woman who recognizes the prophet Elisha and wholeheartedly welcomes him into her home, exemplifying the virtue of hospitality. This encounter leads to a promise and a subsequent miracle. In the gospel of Matthew, Jesus instructs His disciples about their mission and the challenges they will face, emphasizing the importance of total devotion to God above all else.

In the gospel, Jesus prepares His disciples for their mission of spreading the Good News to the world. He speaks of prophets and the rejection they often face, foreshadowing the challenges the apostles will encounter in their ministry. Like the prophets of old, the apostles are called to proclaim the truth fearlessly, even in the face of adversity.

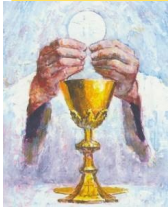

Jesus further emphasizes that nothing should take precedence over our commitment to God, not even family. While familial ties are essential, discipleship demands an unwavering dedication to God's kingdom. This teaching underscores the radical call to discipleship, where our love for God should surpass any earthly attachments. By prioritizing our devotion to God above all else, we open ourselves to a deeper relationship with Him and allow His grace to guide our every action.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

- How can we find courage and strength in the face of adversity when proclaiming the truth of the Gospel?
- What are some ways we can ensure that our priorities align with God's will and that nothing takes precedence over our commitment to Him?
- How do the readings challenge our understanding of family and its relationship to our discipleship? How can we strike a balance between our responsibilities towards our families and our devotion to God?
