Gospel Reflection

The readings for the 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time show us that God wants nothing but life and goodness for us, if only we will let Him rescue us. The first reading explains that God desires life for us, not death. The second reading tells us that God desires abundance for all of his children. And in the gospel, we see two powerful miracles. The story of Jairus' daughter is interrupted by the healing of the woman with the blood disorder.

This structure helps us see the similarities and differences between these two miracles.

The woman with the hemorrhages is cured immediately when she touches Jesus' garment. Her faith is strong, and she believes that touching Jesus will heal her. Her bold action shows her deep trust in Jesus' power.

On the other hand, Jairus' daughter has already died by the time Jesus arrives. Her healing takes longer, but Jesus restores her to life. This shows Jesus' power over even death itself. Both miracles show the importance of faith. Both healings involve physical touch. The woman initiates her healing by reaching out to Jesus. She believes that even touching his garment will heal her. Her faith and action lead to her cure.

In the case of Jairus' daughter, Jesus reaches out to touch her. He takes her hand and tells her to get up. This act of touch brings her back to life. It shows Jesus' compassion and his willingness to connect with those in need.

These stories show us that everyone's encounter with Jesus can be different. Some may reach out to Jesus in faith, while others are touched by Jesus in their need. But in all cases, faith is key. When we face challenges, we must trust in Jesus' power and love and believe that Jesus is with us. We may face different challenges in life. Some may require immediate help, while others may take time. But no matter the situation, our faith in Jesus can bring us comfort and hope.

As we reflect on these readings, let us remember to turn to Jesus in our times of need. Let us trust in his power to heal and restore. Our faith in him can make all the difference.

Reflection Questions

- How does the woman's faith in the Gospel inspire you?
- What does the healing of Jairus' daughter teach you about Jesus' power?
- How important is physical touch in the healing stories?

FAMILY CONNECTION

There are many ways in which we can compare the request for healing made by Jairus and the request of the woman with the hemorrhage. One comparison helps us think about prayer. Jairus asked Jesus for healing on his daughter's behalf; the woman with the hemorrhage had no one to speak for her and bravely approached Jesus on her own initiative. In our prayers, we do both. We intercede for others' needs, and we also courageously express our own needs to God. We find hope in Jesus' response to both of these people, who sought him out in their hour of need. As you gather as a family, talk about some of the things you have prayed for this week. Notice that some of your prayers may have been for other people, and some of your prayers may have been for your own needs. In today's Gospel we find encouragement for both kinds of prayer. Read together today's Gospel, Mark 5:21-43. Talk about the similarities and differences between the two people who presented their needs to Jesus in this Gospel. Notice that both people received the healing they sought from Jesus. We want to pray for the needs of others and for our own needs with as much faith and hope as Jairus and the woman with the hemorrhage did. Pray together in thanks and praise to God, who hears our needs and answers them, by praying today's psalm, Psalm 30.
